Chapter 1 by Katy

A young lady had been wondering around her new house out in the forest. With charming and joyful views of the trees and sky, she enjoyed her place to call it a forever home. The man who sold her the house warned her to not go near a river 4 miles from her house. He says,"Go out and about and explore the natures of this land but don't proceed to go over the property of the Brisks or they'll be sending out the call for him to return."

The happy lady ignored the man's warning and bought the house anyways. She'd forget what the man told her and go out to explore. She called her friend to explore with her and they both went out on the journey.

A crow calls out the curiosity of death.
